

Vector The Viper

It is quite a shock and a surprise to hear that the name VECTORTHEVIPER does not ring a bell. If you're familiar with the Nigerian music scene you definitely would have heard the name more than a thousand times over. 2008 was a great year for Vector who started out with a group of two called The badda Boys (Himself and his partner Blaze). They both had to go solo because Blaze traveled to the UK to further his Education and his music career. While they were together as a group they toured many states and performed at different exotic venues thrilling fans with their unique sound. They were soon signed to backtoback records, had a music video that got numerous airplay on stations like Chanel O and so on. As far as i'm concerned there's absolutely no way you'll talk about hip-hop/rap in Nigeria and you'll not mention this dudes name. VECTOR has built for himself a reputation that surpasses that of every other Nigerian MC one could possibly think about. With a swagger like no other, if he is not the best then he must be better. Like I stated earlier, 2008 was a great year for VECTOR who had countless shows he rocked and countless number of artistes on whose songs he featured on. He definitely got the street buzzing with his name and brand. WATCH OUT!
